Terms and conditions

You must read this carefully

The applicant (subject to acceptance for the Help to Buy Initiative and proceeding to completion of the purchase of the Property) agrees to and directs that the equity loan funding that the Agency will provide (comprising a contribution of up to [20%¹] [40%²] of the Full Purchase Price) is paid direct to the Provider to enable it to reduce the Full Purchase Price of the Property.

The applicant acknowledges that the term of the Help to Buy: Equity Loan 'is usually for 25 years but may be longer depending on the terms of your mortgage (subject to earlier redemption in accordance with the equity loan provisions).

The applicant agrees and confirms by completing this application that if they own a residential property that they will sell their interest in that property (or properties) in advance of completing their purchase of the Property with the assistance of a Help to Buy: Equity Loan and that it is a condition of the equity loan that the Property which is the subject of the Help to Buy: Equity Loan will be the only residential property they have any interest in for the duration of the Help to Buy: Equity Loan.

The applicant further acknowledges that the agency has nominated an agent to administer Help to Buy: Equity Loans Target Group Limited, the mortgage administrator and that all correspondence and payments required under Help to Buy: Equity Loans will be addressed to the mortgage administrator.

The applicant declares for data capture purposes only (or if there is more than one applicant in relation to each applicant) that it is (they are) a:

UK National
EEA Citizen
Person with indefinite leave to remain
Other (please state)

The applicant confirms that they are:

Your data

The applicant acknowledges that:

The Help to Buy agent will only process the given personal data of the applicant for the following purposes. The Help to Buy agent will hold your information in accordance with the Data Protection Act 2018.

Firstly, the processing and administering the applicant's application to participate in the Help to Buy Initiative if the applicant is approved.

Secondly, the Help to Buy agent may also share this information for the same purpose with the Agency, the Post Sales agent and other Help to Buy agents, with other organisations that handle public funds and the Provider.

Thirdly, the information may be used for anonymised statistical surveys and analysis – please request a copy of the cookies policy for more information. The Help to Buy agent may pass your information in confidence to the DCLG (Department for Communities and Local Government), and other third party providers – for more information about how your data is managed, please request a copy of the privacy policy.

All information the applicant gives to the Help to Buy agent on this form (and information resulting from contact with the applicant's landlord and/or employer) may be shared with the same only in relation to your application to participate in the Help to Buy Initiative.

All information will be treated in the strictest confidence. The Help to Buy agent, other Help to Buy agents, the Agency and the Provider, reserve the right to take up any references relating to applicants as the Help to Buy agent considers necessary and may also search the files of any credit reference agency which will keep a record of any such request.

The Help to Buy agent must protect the public funds it handles and so may use the information the applicant has provided on this form to prevent and detect fraud. Under section 29(3) of the Data Protection Act 2018 the information may be disclosed for purposes of crime prevention and detection.

Declaration

It is a criminal offence to fraudulently make a false declaration or withhold information reasonably required in connection with this application.

The applicant has read the above acknowledgement and confirms that the applicant has provided accurate and up-to-date information relating to the applicant's application for assistance under the Help to Buy Initiative.

The applicant understands that if it is found that false information has been given to obtain assistance under the Help to Buy Initiative either knowingly or recklessly, appropriate legal action may be taken and the Agency may take action under its Equity Mortgage.

The applicant authorises the Help to Buy agent to pass information submitted as part of its application to third parties, including third-party service providers and other government departments and agencies for the purposes of processing this application and statistical surveys and analysis of the Help to Buy Initiative.

We require third parties to respect the security of your data and to treat it in accordance with the law. For more information on how we manage your data, please request a copy of the privacy policy.

Direct debit information

This direct debit is to authorise your bank to debit the monthly fees which will fall due under the Equity Mortgage (which will be £1 per month for the first 5 years of the Equity Mortgage). We confirm that the direct debit information will only be used in the event that you purchase the property and enter into an Equity Mortgage with the Agency.

Equal opportunities

The Help to Buy agent operates a policy of equal opportunities in all aspects of its work. No person or group of people applying for housing will be treated less favourably than any other person or group of people because of their sex, age, race, colour, ethnic or national origin. To help the Help to Buy agent maintain a record, it asks the applicant to tick the group to which it considers it belong.

How would you, the applicant, describe your ethnic origin?
